Director's Message

Welcome to our production of Isaiah Jones and the Seekers of the Lost Christmas Treasure! It is my joy and honor to share this special program with you.

Working with our cast, choir, and soloist has been a wonderful experience. Our students showed great dedication, responsibility, and enthusiasm throughout every rehearsal. They practiced with focus, memorized their lines, learned their songs, and gave their very best so they could bring happiness to their families and friends today. I am incredibly proud of each one of them.

Beyond the songs and scenes, this story reminds us of what truly matters during Christmas; The heart of giving. Real Christmas treasure is found in love, kindness, and generosity. My hope is that this message stays with us- not just for this season, but for every day of the year. Our world longs for compassion, patience, and forgiveness, and we each have the power to share these gifts with others.

Thank you to all teachers, parents, and helpers who supported our students. And thank you for being here to celebrate with us.
May this program fill your hearts with joy, hope, and the true spirit of Christmas.

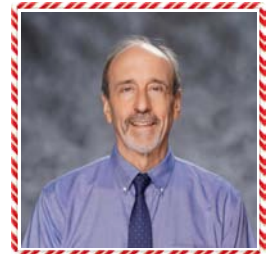

Merry Christmas and God bless you!

Myra Theresa Q. Misa

Headmaster's Message

Dear Parents, Families, and Friends,

As we approach the Christmas season, our campus once again fills with music and the spirit of togetherness. The Lower School's presentation of Isaiah Jones and the Seekers of the Lost Christmas Treasure captures that spirit beautifully. Our students have poured a great deal of effort and energy into every scene, line, and song. Their creativity and teamwork remind us all how imagination and persistence can transform a story into something grand.

The holiday season is always a highlight of the year - a time for celebration, reflection, and connection. What makes this event so special is not only the performance itself but the sense of community it represents. Families, teachers, and students have come together to support, rehearse, decorate, and prepare. Watching that collaboration unfold has been heartwarming, and I could not be prouder of everyone involved.

As we gather for this festive performance, let us also remember the deeper values it represents - kindness, generosity, and gratitude. These qualities define who we are as a community. May this season bring you happiness and peace, and may the joy we share here today carry into the new year ahead.

Thank you for your continued trust and support. I wish each of you a wonderful Christmas and a joyful, restful holiday season.

Principal's Message

Welcome to this year's Lower School Christmas production, Isaiah Jones and the Seekers of the Lost Christmas Treasure. This wonderful story takes us on an adventure filled with mystery, friendship, and the search for what truly matters at Christmas. Our students have poured their energy and excitement into every rehearsal, and it has been a joy to watch them grow in confidence and creativity.

Much like Isaiah and his friends who discover that real treasure of Christmas is found in hope, love, and the light we share with others, our children have discovered their own treasures during this journey- teamwork, courage, joyful collaboration, and the pride of bringing a story life on stage.

I am deeply grateful to our teachers and staff for their commitment and care in guiding our performers, and to our parents and families for your ongoing support and encouragement. Your partnership strengthens our community and allows our students to shine.

As you enjoy tonight's performance, may it remind us all of the wonder of Christmas and the blessings this season brings. I wish you and your families peace, warmth, and joyful moments together.

ISAIAH JONES AND THE SEEKERS OF THE LOST CHRISTMAS TREASURE

Synopsis

Isaiah Jones is an adventurous and curious boy who loves solving mysteries. When he and his friends discover clues about a legendary "Lost Christmas Treasure," they set out on an exciting quest filled with puzzles, challenges, and unexpected twists. Along their journey, they learn important lessons about teamwork, courage, and faith. As Isaiah gets closer to uncovering the real treasure, he begins to understand that the true meaning of Christmas isn't about riches or hidden artifacts—but about God's love, the gift of Jesus, and sharing that message with others. The story blends fun, humor, and heartfelt moments as the Seekers discover that the greatest treasure has been with them all along.
